

10 New Insights in Climate Science

An annual synthesis that highlights essential recent advances in climate change research, from natural and social sciences, with high policy relevance.

The Future Earth community can get involved in different ways:

December

Hub Directors can nominate candidates for the Editorial Board.

January

Join as a writer-coordinator, responsible for one Insight.

February

Reply to our 'call for topics' with your own suggestions.

March

Join one of the topic expert teams, as a co-author.

July

Review the academic paper underpinning the report.

November

Follow the launch at COP and share the report widely!

